

Palestine
A Special Performance
by Najla Saïd

Sturgis Warner
Director and Dramaturg

Introduced by Ari Roth, Artistic Director of Theater J

This visceral one-woman theater piece sheds light on what it means to be Arab, to be American, to be aware. Saïd's personal tale captures the trying and tumultuous state of the world with honesty, rawness and humor.

Friday, October 2, 2009
Shiloh Baptist Church
1500 9th Street, NW
Washington, DC

Doors Open at 7:30 pm
Performance begins at 8:15 pm
Free will offerings gratefully accepted.

This performance is part of a Sabeel Conference for Peacemakers

Pursue Justice, Seek Peace!

Framing the Discourse – Mobilizing for Action

www.FOSNA.org